

Press Release

New Head of Purchasing at Naber

The end of January 2024 will see a personnel change in the Purchasing department at Naber GmbH, which is a cause of great regret among the management and staff: After some 43 years with the company, the Purchasing Manager and authorised signatory, Mr. Friedrich Kotmann, is retiring. Since 15 January 1981, with his commercial expertise and his enthusiasm for high-quality kitchen accessories, he has been one of the driving forces behind Naber's success.

However, this loss goes hand in hand with the joy of having gained an extremely competent new purchasing manager: Mr. Mathias Schonhoff, who has already been under contract with Naber since 1 March 2022, is set to take over this responsible position from Mr. Kotmann in February 2024. He was Head of Purchasing at a regional mechanical engineering company for many years and from 2015 to 2022 he was in charge of the entire materials management including logistics. Mr. Schonhoff will be supported by Mr. Guido Lammering, who is responsible for operational purchasing.

Against the background of this broad practical experience and thanks to his winning personality, Mr. Schonhoff enables Naber to continue its innovation-oriented business policy. The Management Board expresses its sincere thanks to Mr. Kotmann for his decades of far-sighted and reliable service in the Purchasing department of the Nordhorn-based family business.
